

The most exclusive recovery
centre in the world, treating one client at a time.

The Kusnacht Practice is the most exclusive recovery centre in the world, treating a wide range of addictive and psychological disorders in a luxurious surrounding. Each patient is treated individually, and privately. Our internationally renowned team of doctors and psychiatrists provide individual care, identifying and treating the underlying causes of a problem. We have successfully pioneered the use of Bio-R as a highly effective treatment that detects the underlying causes of chronic emotional discomfort, addiction and many other disorders. We offer our international clients a comprehensive, unique treatment programme with the greatest chance of lasting recovery.
